A senior at Pittsford Mendon High School, Ward Stare began his study of the trombone at age 9. He has been a member of the Rochester Philharmonic Youth Orchestra (RPYO) since 1994, and has held the principal chair for the past three seasons. During the past two summers, Ward traveled to North Carolina to participate in the Eastern Music Festival (EMF). At EMF, in addition to performing weekly with the two festival orchestras, Ward studied harmony and counterpoint with Adrian McDonnell and trombone with Richard Stout. In the fall of 1998, Ward became a member of the Eastman Trombone Choir, directed by Dr. John Marcellus.

Over the past two years, Ward has been fortunate enough to win several awards. In March 1998, he was the winner of the United States Army Band's Eastern Trombone Workshop Solo Competition-Division I. In December 1998, he was the winner of the Penfield Symphony Young Arts Competition, performing Frank Martin's Ballade with the orchestra in February. Also in December of 1998, Ward won the RPYO's Concerto Competition; he performed J. G. Albrechtsberger's Concerto in B-flat for Alto Trombone and Strings with the ensemble in March. In January 1999, he auditioned for the official Rochester Philharmonic Orchestra Substitute Musicians List and was accepted.

Ward also enjoys playing jazz music. In January, he performed with NIK Entertainment Company at the Super Bowl in Miami, Florida. Last year, Ward won the Outstanding Soloist Award in the Jazz Ensemble Event at the North American Music Festival in New York City.

Ward's principal teachers have been: George Osborn, Richard Stout, and John Marcellus. Ward is deeply grateful to all of his mentors and would like to thank all those who have supported him, especially his parents. He plans to pursue his musical studies at the Juilliard School of Music next year and hopes to eventually build a successful career as a professional musician.
